

Carmela Guaglianone

SEPTEMBER 2022 - MAY 2024

New York University, New York, NY

M.A. candidate Journalism and International Relations

AUGUST 2017 - MAY 2021

Duke University, Durham, NC

B.A. International Comparative Studies (concentration: Europe)

B.A. Linguistics, Minor: Decision Sciences (GPA: 3.76)

Media Experience

MARCH 2022 - PRESENT

San Francisco Examiner, San Francisco, CA - Reporter

Report daily news stories –breaking news, business news and features – as well as enterprise pieces recent coverage includes: affordable housing projects on seismic hazard zones. Write a daily newsletter to ensure our audience of over 50,000 subscribers is well-informed.

FEBRUARY - DECEMBER 2021

Pathbreaker, San Francisco, CA- Chief Marketing Officer

Chief storyteller and media strategist for a travel start-up. As a founding member I developed a copywriting strategy, brand and social media presence. I managed B2B partnerships, influencers and ambassadors.

FEBRUARY 2020 - MAY 2021

The 9th Street Journal, Durham, NC - Staff Writer

Wrote feature pieces for this local publication, a project between Durham's Indy Week and the Duke University journalism program. My story on the town's notorious "Can Opener Bridge" was awarded the Fischer-Zernin Award for Local Journalism in 2021.

SEPTEMBER 2018 - MAY 2021

The Standard Magazine, Durham, NC - Production Editor

Contributor and executive member of this Duke University arts and culture magazine. My projects ranged from poetry and photography to short fiction prose.

MAY - AUGUST 2020

Story+, Narrating Migration Durham, NC - Researcher

This competitive summer research program offered by Duke University pushed me to develop my familiarity with oral and archival sources. It culminated in a self-guided research project with a deliverable of a multifaceted platform to present our findings; I created a website.

SEPTEMBER 2019 - JANUARY 2020

Temple Rome Culture and Identity Envoy Program, Rome, IT - Storytelling Ambassador

Attended cultural events relating to diversity and marginalized communities in Rome. Reflected through programmed group discussions and analyzed value through blog posts and photo essays.

carmelaguaglianone.com

carmela.guag@gmail.com

480.223.7686

201 Allen Street, 2C

New York, NY 10002

Other Work Experience

Duke University Press - Production Associate

826 Valencia - Creative Writing Tutor & Podcast Editor

San Francisco Book
Wagon - Literacy Advocate

Penny Pilgram George
Women's Leadership
Initiative - Program
Graduate

Duke Bass Connections,
El Sistema - Data Analyst

Kurbo by WW - Marketing and Digital Media Intern

National Association for Civil Victims of War- Translations Editor

Digital Skills

Adobe Suite:Photoshop,
Illustrator & Premiere
Pro.

Wix, Squarespace &
Wordpress design

Social Media Layout &
Design: Twitter,
Instagram, Facebook.

Airtable

Language Skills

Italian - Proficient